

Adam Miller Memorial Scholarship
'Love of the Game' Award

Number of Awards One each year

Amount $1000

Description Adam Miller was a graduate of Rush-Henrietta Class of '09. Adam played baseball from 7th Grade Modified, through Freshman, Junior Varsity and Varsity Baseball for Rush-Henrietta Schools. These were some of his happiest and proudest moments of his school career. It was this love of the game and comradeship with his fellow players that helped make him the wonderful person he was. Possessed with an infectious smile, contagious laugh and a heart of gold, Adam was loved and respected by his friends and teammates. Always ready to go the extra mile to help, he stood behind and supported his team on and off the field. Although he played the game with a combative fierceness and abandon, he showed great poise and temperament on the field. A totally selfless player. This scholarship will be awarded to a Rush-Henrietta Senior High School graduating senior who best exemplifies these characteristics, based on the requirements below.

Requirements The graduating senior receiving this scholarship will be selected based on the following criteria:
