

Sherwin “Red” Menter Memorial Scholarship Fund

Number of Awards	One Each Year
Amount	$1,000 per year for 2 years
Description	Red Menter was a resident of Henrietta for over 50 years, who watched with pride as his children and grand-children participated in and graduated from Rush-Henrietta schools. Following his service in the Navy during World War II, he became a hard-working HVAC serviceman sought out by local entrepreneurs to assist in building and maintaining many marquis buildings in Rochester. Despite such prominence, he was also known to pay his employer out of his own pocket for residential service calls and simply accept a sandwich from those who were otherwise unable to pay for his services. He is remembered for his sense of humor, strong commitment to family and selfless caring for others. Red had a unique ability to quickly turn strangers into friends and was adored by many as a “good person”. This scholarship will be awarded to a student that best exemplifies the character of Red Menter. Decisions will be made by the family of Red Menter and the Rush-Henrietta Education Foundation.
